

AG DRONE SCHOOL

Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Ground School for Farmers, Crop Scouts & Agronomists

Agricultural Value from UAV's

- NDVI and other vegetative indexes
- Data accuracy: sensors and calibration
- Farm remote sensing, current & future
- Hands-on:
 - mapping, from flight to orthomosaic
 - software workflows for agronomy, including multispectral options

Vegreville

Agricultural Society

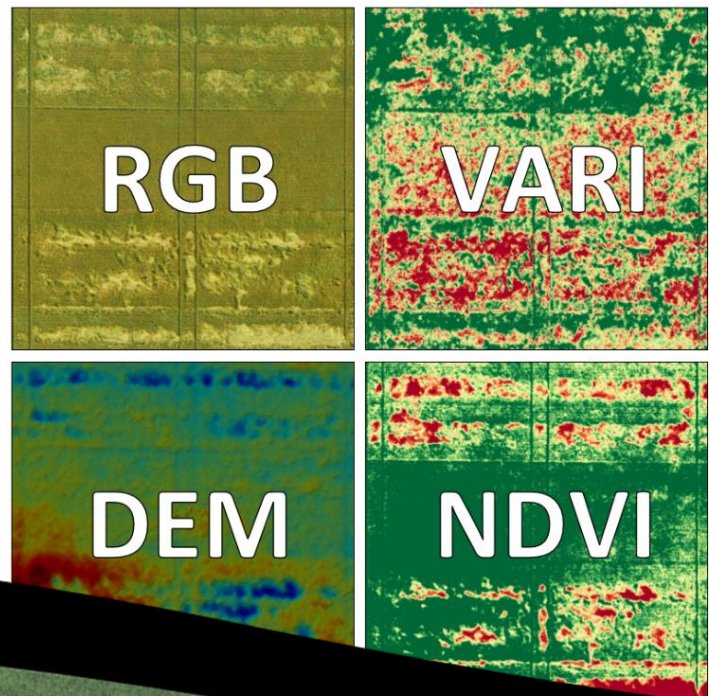

April 5 - 6, 2018

UAV Ground School

- Transport Canada regulations
- Navigation and airspace
- Maintenance procedures
- Safe flight operations
- Hands-on multicopter flight training

Two full days for $590 includes: ground school, lunches, and a small drone to keep practicing at home.

Space is limited. Register at www.landview.com or call Markus at (780) 448-7445 for more info.

See your farm in a whole new light