Rules Governing Livestock Entries

1. Livestock classes are open to all, regardless of distance, unless specified.
2. Only animals from healthy herds are eligible for entry. Any exhibitor who knowingly enters an animal from an unhealthy herd shall forfeit all prizes earned by him, and will be excluded from exhibiting.
3. Abuse of animals will not be tolerated. Any person found abusing an animal will be excluded from exhibiting and told to leave the fair grounds.
4. No animal exhibited shall be decorated with medals or prizes until after the awards are made in their respective classes.
5. No animal will be left unattended if not securely tied in the barns or in their stalls.
6. The directors will take every precaution to ensure the safety of all animals, but will not hold themselves responsible for the value thereof, or for any damage sustained to animals or property.
7. No smoking or cooking is permitted in the barns.
8. Dress Code: All entrants will wear appropriate show attire during classes.
9. Exhibitors are responsible for making correct entries, NO REFUND for entry fee will be made for classes incorrectly entered.

Rules Governing Judges and Judging

1. No person will be allowed to act as a judge who is in any way interested in the exhibits that person is to judge.
2. It is the responsibility of the entrant to ensure that they are on time for their classes, once judging has commenced no one will be allowed in show ring. No refunds for exhibitors who miss their class. No person will be permitted in the animal show ring during the time of judging, except judges or assistants, persons in charge of animals, officers of the society, or members of the press.
3. Any exhibitor who makes a false entry, attempts to interfere with or influence a judge while in the discharge of their duties, or uses abusive or contemptuous language to a judge or show committee or personnel, shall forfeit his right to all prizes he might be entitled to and shall be excluded from exhibiting.
4. Judges shall, in all cases, withhold the awarding of prizes where the exhibit is not worthy, even though there may be no competition, or may award second or third prize where the exhibit does not come up to the proper standards.
5. The judge's decision is final.

Regulations

1. All horse entries must be filed by 1 week prior to show. Post entries will be accepted at double the entry fee for all classes except for Fun Classes. Post entries during the show will only be accepted between 7:30 – 8:30 a.m. on show day.
2. All horses entered in light horse classes must be named on the entry form.
3. A junior exhibitor is defined as not having reached their 18th birthday by January 1st, current year. No junior exhibitors are permitted to show stallions.
4. No cross-entering of Junior riders to Senior Performance Classes.
5. When the total number of entries in any class is four or less, the directors reserve the right to amalgamate the class with any other of the same type.

Stabling

1. Stabling will be assigned on a first come, first serve basis.
2. Box stalls are limited, with priority given to horses staying for the three days.
3. Exhibitors are requested to see the stall posting list prior to taking possession of a stall.
4. If exhibitors require stabling together, please send entries together.
5. Final stabling will be at the discretion of the committee. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the committee reserves the right to change stabling assignments.
6. We presently have 86 stalls available.
7. There are no tack rooms available.
8. Stalls MUST be completely cleaned back to dirt floor
